Breathing under water ...

As a kid that was a dream

A repetitive dream

A deep feeling

I met and admired this man who stays smoothly under water for a long amount of time.

He was not breathing. He learned how to stay without breathing like dolphins do. He wanted to be one of them.

Yoga and meditation was his path and practice to reach the deep blue. And he was the best apneist in the world.

I dedicate this collection to him. With my best memory.

Thank you Jacques Mayol, you made me dream even more.

With love,

Frederic Desmard
